

Art Studio on the Boulevard

Naomi Smulian Mendel, owner and director of Art Studio on the Boulevard and Mad Hatter Arts Camp, has over 50 years of experience with art in the magical world of children and adults. She encourages spontaneity, at the same time providing a solid basis in the fundamentals of art. Naomi is an artist, a teacher, and a writer of both children's books and Love for Learning, a series of curriculums for schools and daycare centers. Originally from Israel, she received her first degree in Fine Arts and completed graduate courses from the Ecole des Beaux-Arts and Academie de la Grande Chaumiere of Paris, France. She also earned a teaching certificate in Education. She has taught and exhibited in the United States, Venezuela, Columbia, Israel, England, France, and Trinidad.

The Art Studio on the Boulevard has been a part of the Heights' family for over 25 years. Naomi says, "In that time our classes and camps have brought the world of art to thousands of children and adults. We love what we do!"

Yu Cha Pak, teacher of our Watercolor Workshops, was born in Korea and studied Classical Oriental Art in Seoul. After immigrating to the United States, she continued her studies at the Florida Institute of Technology, receiving her degree in Fine Art. She also studied printmaking at the Art Students League in New York City and the .02Glassell School in Houston. Her artwork has been accepted into numerous festivals and shows, including several national juried exhibitions. Her honors include a First Place Prize in Watercolor in a New York City show curated by the Whitney Museum's Barbara Haskell.

Yu Cha has been a frequent participant in Houston's Bayou City Art Festival, where she has been a Featured Artist. She has embraced a wide range of media in which to express her artistic vision, including acrylics, watercolors, clay sculpture, mixed media, and printmaking. She has also illustrated several children's books.
